

RENOWNED HONG KONG
BELLY DANCE SPECIALIST

LIINA CHEUNG

Liina is the Founder and Artistic Director of "Belly Princess Studio & Production", and the Chairman of "Hong Kong Belly Dance Association". She is an active belly dance instructor and performer. Dedicated to dance education and performance, Liina is an avid promoter of oriental belly dance, its elegance and the deep cultural mystery of the art form.

With over 20 years of experience in various dance forms including Chinese dance, ballet, jazz, modern and tap, Liina began to study dance at a young age. She entered the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts in 1998, majoring in Musical Theatre Dance under the guidance of distinguished Hong Kong jazz instructor Mohamed Drissi. She has been invited to perform in numerous large-scale concerts, including Lesley Cheung, Sammi Cheng, Joey Yung, Andy Hui, Elva Hsiao and many others.

In 1995, Liina began studying belly dance while attending school in Europe, and has been travelled to Egypt, Turkey and other Middle Eastern countries regularly to explore the technical aspects of the art form. She participated in "Ahlan Wa Sahlan" and "Nile Group Festival", the largest belly dance festivals in the world.

Liina studied with many internationally renowned Middle Eastern belly dance masters and performers, including Mahmoud Reda, Raqia Hassan, Randa Kamel, Asmahan, Farouk Moustafa, Saida, Mario Kirlis and many more. She has been certified by the internationally celebrated artist and Egyptian dance master Mahmoud Reda as the first honorary instructor and the educational representative of his dance training system in Hong Kong, promoting her status in the belly dancing scene.

Besides the Middle East Arab countries, Liina also regularly visits regional Asian belly dance hotspots such as Tai Wan, Japan and Korea for cultural exchange; she has also been invited to judge and perform in many belly dance competitions.
